

March 22, 2010

From: Warren County Foundation
118 East Main Street
Lebanon, Ohio 45036

Contact: Jim Bliss, Vice President of Development
jimbliss@warrencountyfoundation.org
(513) 934-1001

Honorees Chosen for Community Service Awards

The Warren County Foundation has chosen honorees for its 2010 Community Service Awards. The awards will be presented at a banquet to be held April 21.

They are: Jim & Rosie VanDeGrift, George R. Henkle Philanthropy and Community Service Award; Matthew Loveless, Emerging Leader in Community Service Award; Interfaith Hospitality Network of Warren County, Outstanding Organization Award; and, Child Advocacy Center of Warren County, Emerging Organization Award.

Recipients will be honored at an awards banquet on April 21 at the Manor House in Mason. Social Hour begins at 6:00 p.m.; dinner is at 7:00. In addition to the awards, the program will feature Patricia Linhart and Julie Spangler who have performed with the Cincinnati and Dayton Symphonies, the Cincinnati Pops, and many regional and national theatres.

All-inclusive tickets for the evening are $50 per person. Call the Foundation office at 934-1001 or e-mail info@warrencountyfoundation.org.

Presenting sponsor, LCNB National Bank; Corporate sponsors, Atrium Medical Center and Duke Energy.