

Carol Hughes

Director, Donor Relations

Born and raised in England, Carol and her family emigrated to Ohio in July 1993. After 15 years as an elementary school teacher, 16 years with the YMCA, and 11 years with the Springboro Chamber of Commerce, Carol is now happily retired.

Carol is a devoted Rotarian, a member of the Fairfield Rotary Club for 4 years, and, most recently, the Springboro Rotary Club for the past 15 years. In July 2021, Carol became Rotary District Governor for District 6670, leading the 48 Rotary clubs in southwest Ohio. Service above self is the motto of Rotary, and Carol lives by this every day.

Carol lives in Springboro, Ohio, with her three dogs, Alfie, Dele, and Kylie. Her four adult children live in Indianapolis (Russell/Lindsay), Waynesville (Adam/Kelly), Springboro (Kelly/Curtis), and Hamilton (Daniel/Emily). She has two grandsons, Camren (14) and Corwin (10), and two granddaughters, Mclayne (7) and Evie (4). She is in a relationship with Ray Kramp, District 6560 Governor in Central Indiana.
