

Tim Nusbaum

Chief Financial Officer

Tim brings decades of broad financial expertise and executive leadership, having held key roles in public companies with a strong focus on transparency, strategic planning, and financial stewardship.

Throughout his career, Tim has led financial operations for large organizations, overseeing investment management, stakeholder relations, and long-term planning. His deep understanding of complex financial systems and commitment to responsible fiscal oversight will help ensure the Foundation remains strong, stable, and forward-looking.

Tim’s thoughtful, strategic approach to finance will serve our donors, partners, and the community well as we continue to grow our impact.

