

Mike

McGinty

Interim President

With over 30 years of nonprofit leadership experience—including the last three years serving as our part-time Director of Donor Relations and 18 years as Executive Director at Camp Joy—Mike brings a blend of stability and innovation to our organization. His deep familiarity with the Foundation, combined with versatile expertise in operations, fundraising, and strategic planning, makes him exceptionally suited to lead us during this pivotal time.

Mike's passion and commitment to excellence have earned him high praise across the nonprofit sector, emphasizing his ability to set a vision and build strong relationships with stakeholders. While we search for our next President, you can rest assured that we're in good hands with Mike, the WCF team, and our board as they guide us toward a future filled with purposeful growth and community impact.
